Press release:

Archi-World® Academy Awards (AWA)

Only 100 days left before the launch of the Archi-World® Academy Awards (AWA),
the largest worldwide architecture contest for students in architecture:

Save the date: 19 January 2011 in Munich / Germany!

On this occasion, the names of the 12 international leading architects that have agreed to be part of the jury members will be unveiled.

The jury is fostered by honorable Prof. Juhani Pallasmaa, Helsinki / Finland

Archi-Europe, the first European architects network (currently over 187.000 architect members) and Messe München Gmbh, the world's leading trade fair for Architecture will officially launch the 1st Archi-World® Academy Awards on 19 January 2011 during the BAU trade fair exhibition.

Subject of the contest:
"Energy-saving projects and ideas for the future of architecture and urbanism"

It will give students of architecture coming from the entire world the chance to present their best projects or concepts in the field of energy savings.

The Prize: 12 student best projects will be selected by the jury. Each member of the jury will welcome a winning student for a traineeship period of 4 to 6 months. The following best 1000 architect student's projects and ideas will be published on www.AWAcademy.org

Entries will be submitted from 1st April 2011 to 30 September 2012. Intermediate Industrial and Press Awards will be organized in October 2011 and June 2012.

Awarding Closing Ceremony:
The prestigious awarding ceremony will take place during Bau 2013 Exhibition (Munich, January 2013) in the presence of a selection of the members of Jury.
